As with Gladness Sages Bold

As with gladness sages bold did the guiding star behold;
as with joy they hailed its light, leading onward, beaming bright, so, true Morning Star, may we evermore your splendor see.

As with joyful steps they sped to that lowly manger bed, there to bend the knee before One whom heaven and earth adore, so, may we with willing feet ever seek your mercy seat.

As they offered gifts most rare at that manger plain and bare,
so may we with holy joy, pure and free from sin's alloy, all our costliest treasures bring, Christ, to you from whom they spring.

Holy Jesus, every day keep us in the narrow way;
and when earthly things are past, bring our ransomed lives at last where they need no star to guide, where no clouds thy glory hide.

We Three Kings

We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.
O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

Born a King on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again
King forever, ceasing never, over us all to reign.

Frankincense to offer have I, incense owns a Deity nigh;
prayer and praising, gladly raising, worshiping God on high.

Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom, sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying, sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

Glorious now behold him arise, Christ and God and sacrifice:
alleluia, alleluia, sounds through the earth and skies.

O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

The First Noel

The first Noel, the angel did say; was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields where they lay keeping their sheep, on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.

They looked up and saw a star, shining in the east, beyond them far,
and to the earth it gave great light, and so it continued both day and night:
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.

And by the light of that same star three wise men came from country far;
to seek for a king was their intent, and to follow the star wherever it went:
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.

This star drew nigh to the northwest, o'er Bethlehem it took its rest, and there it did both stop and stay right over the place where Jesus lay.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.

Then entered in those wise men three, full reverently upon their knee, and offered there in his presence their gold and myrrh and frankincense:
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel, born is the King of Israel.
